Vesterday Englehard Pabst, charged with being an accessary in the killing of George Emery was committed to prison to stand his trial.

In Almond st Southwark, on Friday afternoon, Sarah Campbell, aged 15 years, was precipitated from the lourth story window of a house to the ground, and so severely injured that she was not expected to survive.

Two notorious Moyamensing rowdies, named Tom Carnes and Dick Drew, were yesterday arrested, and committed in default of $3,500 and $1,000 hail, to answer the charge of rioting.

Six of the persons injured by the late explosion

$1,000 bail, to answer the charge of rioting.
Six of the persons injured by the late explosion on board the Steamboat "Telegraph," are at the Pensylvania Hospital. All are doing as well as can be expected; but James Haley, one of the sufferers, is not expected to live. He is twenty-four years of age, and an Irishman by birth.

During last night, one hundred men, belonging to Police Marshal Keyser's force, patrolled Moyamensing. The District was perfectly quiet.

During the week ending yesterday, there were 120 deaths in this city. Of consumption, 16; scarlet fever, 8. Adults, 66; children, 63.
